

HOT CHOC

ingredients

(per person)

- 2 cups of milk
- 2 tablespoons of unsweetened cocoa powder
- 2 tablespoons of granulated sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon of vanilla extract
- Toppings of choice: marshmallows, crushed candy, cookies, sprinkles, chocolate shavings

method

1. Put the toppings in little bags or cling wrap and hide them in the following places (1 pack per spot): the pantry, inside the fridge, in the bath, under the table, under a pillow, and on the couch ready for a game.
2. Then in a small saucepan, heat the milk over medium heat until it starts to steam. Be careful not to let it boil.
3. In a separate bowl, mix the cocoa powder and sugar together until well combined.
4. Gradually whisk the cocoa powder mixture into the steaming milk. Continue whisking until the cocoa and sugar are completely dissolved and the mixture is smooth.
5. Stir in the vanilla extract and continue to heat the hot chocolate for another minute or two until it reaches your desired temperature.
6. Remove the saucepan from the heat and pour the hot chocolate into mugs.
7. Allow the hot chocolate to cool slightly before serving it to the kids. In the meantime, turn the page to play the toppings treasure hunt game.

TOPPINGS TREASURE HUNT

While your hot chocs cool, it's time to find your toppings to add in. Solve each riddle to discover where your sweet treats are hidden.

In the kitchen, I reside,
a place where food and drinks abide.
I'm always cool, never hot,
with shelves and drawers, a perfect spot.

In the bedroom, I find my place,
a cushioned comfort for your embrace.
When you lay down, I'll be your guide,
supporting your head as dreams collide.

A place where cans are stacked up high,
bags of flour, sugar, and things for pie.
Boxes of cereal and pasta galore,
snacks and treats you always adore.

You sit in me to wash away the grime,
as you soak and relax, taking your time.
Afterward, there will be no more muck,
Here you might find your rubber duck.

In the dining room or kitchen, I stand tall,
a thing for meals and gatherings for all.
On me, you place your food and drink,
A place to do crafts, homework, and think.

In the living room, I am found,
a cosy spot for comfort all around.
From movie nights to lazy days,
I'm where relaxation always stays.
